

Big Sandy News

FRIDAY, September 11, 1908.

"Hubby, is my hat on straight?"
"Well, if your hat is, your hair isn't and if your hair is, then there is something askew about your hat."

A woman on the train entering Grand Rapids asked the conductor how long the cars stopped at Union station.

He replied: "Madam, we stop just four minutes, from two to two to two two."

The woman turned to her companion and said:

"I wonder if he thinks he's the whistle on the engine?"—Outdoor Life.

Insure with Wallace. Life, fire accident, etc. Office near depot.

The stork is abroad in the land again, having visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hewlett Monday, leaving a 9 pound boy.—Fort Gay Leader.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Fannin, of Beechey, Ky., Aug. 24th, a girl—Inez. Mrs. Fannin will be better remembered in Louisa as Miss R. B. Ratcliff.

R. A. Bickel won the prize offered to West Virginia agents for the largest number of applications for life insurance sent in during August.

Wanted: Sewing machine with our fry gin and of oils and greases. In Lawrence and adjoining counties. Salary or commission. The Fairfax Refining Co., Cleveland, O.

Look at the Merry-go-round in Conley's. C. A. Benn is the Conley's wife. He is an all round up-to-date water and no side place where it pertains to strictly first-class workmanship.

The meeting closed Sunday night after a well attended and great day. It was manifested. Quite a number were converted and a number more to have received the second blessing.—Fort Gay Leader.

Dr. T. D. Burgess was here Monday returning to his home at Matewan, W. Va., after having been with his brother-in-law, Jeff Burgess at Gallup, for more than a week. Jeff is recovering very satisfactorily from the operation for appendicitis.

George W. Norris, of Fallsburg, was struck by an electric car at Catlettsburg Wednesday evening. He was apparently quite badly hurt, but we are not sure of the exact extent of the injury.

LATER.—Learn just before going to press that Mr. Norris is dangerously injured.

John Burns Horton is very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Skeene have rooms at Sam Bromley's.

Remember the date of the County Fair—Oct. 9th and 10. Get your products ready.

It is reported that Warren M. Meek, of Palatka, will start a paper at Pikeville soon.

Dr. Watson is now getting along nicely, with his contract at the mouth of Big Sandy river. The guide wall out in the river is almost completed and this has been the most difficult part of the job.

Frank H. Logan has arrived here from the Pittsburgh district to look after dam No. 1 on Tug river at Salt Peter. He is an engineer and will be in immediate charge of the work, reporting to Mr. A. M. Campbell of the Louisa office.

Harrodsburg can boast of a street, about the distance of three blocks in length, on which reside sixteen widows. They are all charming and cultured women, and more than half of them are property owners. The street is one of the principal ones in town.—Harrodsburg Herald.

John Burns Horton is in bed with a very bad foot. He cut it several weeks ago on a bit of glass. Not much attention was paid to it at the time, but later it became a very serious matter, and for several days he has been in the hands of the doctor. His mother, who is visiting in Virginia, was written for last Saturday, but the case having assumed a more favorable aspect she was wired not to come. The lad is very patient and plucky, having borne the free use of the knife with wonderful nerve.

On last Sunday Rev. O. F. Williams closed his pastorate at Louisa, at least for a time. Two large congregations heard his farewell sermons. He has served the M. E. Church South at this place the limit of four years and he will necessarily be sent elsewhere by the conference which will meet at Webster Springs, W. Va., next Tuesday. He will go there with the best year's report that has ever gone up from this charge. Any church will be fortunate to secure the services of Rev. Williams.

Webbville.

Mrs. Lina Thompson was quite ill for a few days with neuralgia. Rev. Stambaugh, wife and son, of Lexington, were in Webbville this week.

A. S. Conley and family passed through here this week moving to Ashland. We are sorry to see them go and to lose good people from our county.

All the surprise felt in this section over the arrest of J. M. Rice at Lexington, was the surprise the Kentucky Democrat expressed Mr. Rice was well known here.

A great religious war seems to be sweeping over this section. We are all glad to see it.

Rev. Yoak, of the M. E. Church, South, held a very interesting meeting here a few days last week.

We understand the contest at Grayson on Thursday of last week given by the Ladies of the W. C. T. U. was a very successful affair. Mrs. Lou Shays was the winner of the medal. It was given in the park for the benefit of the old soldiers, Mrs. Ned Bagby being the winner. Let the good work of temperance go on.

Much excitement prevails over the burning of the Cooper family. Indignation toward Frank Kelley since the confession of Kelley's boy, is running high.

Curt and wife, and baby, of West Virginia, are visiting his grandmother, Aunt Aggie Pennington.

The sheriff has created quite a sensation among the Webbville boys, serving summons for next week's court.

W. C. Quisenberry who has been a sufferer from blood poisoning in his hand, is some better.

Ruth.

Try This For Dessert.

Dissolve one package of any flavored JELL-O in one pint of boiling water. When partly congealed beat until light adding one cup whipped cream and six crushed macaroons. Whip altogether thoroughly and pour it into a mold or bowl. When cool, it will jellify and may be served with whipped cream or any good pudding sauce.

The JELL-O costs 10c. per package and can be obtained at any good grocer's.

In Memoriam.

The death angel has again visited our community and taken from the home of W. M. Wright and wife, their loving little daughter, Carrie, aged seven months and four days. The home has lost a sparkling jewel, but God needed another little angel amidst his shining band and took their darling little Carrie. Weep not, father, mother, brothers and sisters, but only think of her waiting for you up in heaven. Dear friends and relatives if you want to meet little Carrie, prepare to meet her in that bright Celestial City. You can go to her but she can not come to you. Jesus said, "Suffer little children to come unto Me, forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." A Relative.

FAMILY CARES.

This Information May be of Value to Many a Mother in Louisa

When there is added to the many cares inseparable from the rearing of children that affliction of weakness of the kidneys and auxiliary organs, the mother's lot is far from a happy one. This condition can be quickly changed and absolutely cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. When this is known the mother's burden will be lighter and her home happier.

Mrs. T. V. Heston, living in Louisa, Ky., says: "I sincerely trust my testimonial may be seen by some other sufferer of weakened kidneys. My daughter was greatly annoyed from the improper action of these organs. She complained of a dull aching across her back and she was unable to retain the kidney secretions. She procured Doan's Kidney Pills and it required but the use of but one box to give her entire relief and she has since been in the best of health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
